Chapter 1 by GeneralSh

Has anyone got a moment in their life they facepalm about? lets hear it!!

Mine is pretty bad. When I was young, I got my head trapped in a McDonald's bathroom stall door. I got it out, but I needed stitches on my chin. When I went, it took two nurses and my dad to hold me down while the doctor sutured it. I got an arm free and socked the doc in the face (I was about five) and he left the room. A few minutes later another one came in and we finished up. When we came in to check it the next day the old doctor looked pretty cautious as he checked the stitches.

I busted them open the next month by running full tilt into a tree. i have a scar to this day.

Chapter 2 by Joakim

I was in Rome and we were also at a McDonalds. The staff couldn't speak much English and I didn't know any Italian.

Anyhow - I needed to go to the restroom but the lock was half stuck. After waiting for a long time I asked the staff about it. I thought they wanted me to use force to open the door.

As the door burst opens I quickly noticed my mistake. There sat an Italian lady with her pants down screaming at me in Italian.

I quickly ran back to my dad and told him we needed to go now!
